Free-spirited journalist Independence McClaren follows her heart to a Colorado silver-town -- and a test of her fierce commitment to the truth. Mindy's birth name is Independence McClaren -- a fitting match for her tenacity and determination. Leaving behind a secure but colorless future in the east, the fiery young woman heads west to Coarse Gold, Colorado, and the opportunity to carve her mark in a man's world. As reporter for the Roaring River Gazette, Mindy not only will ferret out the news but will become the voice of conscience in this rough-and-tumble mining town, its reminder of the biblical principles of truth, virtue, and mercy. Little does she dream how her most prized possession as a journalist -- her passion for the truth -- will be put to the test. To follow her heart or to retain her integrity? Mindy will have to choose.

Reviews of the Undaunted Spirit (Westward Dreams, Book 5) by Jane Peart

Linn

This was the second book I read by this author. It was a very interesting book. Mindy had many men in her life. First her dad, her brothers and her boss at the newspaper also her beau Judson. All treated her very different. Then she spread her wings and went out to Colorado there she met her boss at the newspaper Byron then Taylor and Wade. She thought she had a loving relationship with Wade but he was crook. She was just friends with Taylor though I'm sure he wanted more. Mindy made her way as a newspaper reporter then an editor. Taylor was also her protector during this time. After Byron suddenly past away his nephew Lawrence came into the picture. Mindy helped him with many things this caused a love to grow between them. This was the man Mindy had waited for.

Lonesome Orange Kid

I bought these for my mom, she loves them.

Chillhunter

A good afternoon's read. It was a believable story of a woman who overcame difficulties and led an interesting life.

Landamath

The characters in this book are great. I like a woman who is trying something new, which is what the heroine does in this book. I highly recommend this book.
